

northfieldkitchenconnection

Warm your tastebuds with flavors of Mexico, New Orleans, and the UK at this year's Northfield Winter Walk! A new community kitchen collaboration, the Northfield Kitchen Connection, will be in Armory Square (corner of Division and Sixth St.) this Thursday Dec. 8th starting at 5pm. Maria's Catering will be selling hot tamales and Mexican spiced hot chocolate; Crescent Creams will have traditional New Orleans Pecan Pralines, Nipples of Venus (their version of the original French praline) and Chocolate Passion Cookies; and I'll be there with Chromatic Catering offering Scotch eggs-on-a-stick, veg and goat cheese hand pies, and a beef-porter stew (cooked with Imminent Brewing's porter!) Hot and sweet! Bonfires, lights, and holiday music will help keep the chill away. Join us for the fun!
